During the past 3.5 years as the principal of Towson High School, our students, staff, and parents have always impressed me with their willingness and desire to take initiative to make a positive difference in the lives of others. So many of our students and staff truly understand the influence that results from collective efforts that are aimed at bringing about positive change. Are we perfect? Nobody is! Do we have needs? Of course we do! Are we capable of tapping into our talents and skills to make a difference to pave the way for others? Absolutely! Words can’t express the positive impact that the members of our Black Student Union had in showcasing positive contributions to honor Black History Month. The Officers of the Black Student Union (Kristian Alston, Daja Alexander, Autymn Epps, and Janynea Hutchinson, Dayja Page) in collaboration with Mr. Brown, Ms. Folk, and Mr. Rivers planned an outstanding event that truly showcased their talents. The event included poetry, singing, and guest speakers. Audience members were provided with the opportunity to share individual experiences. Mrs. DiMino shared, “The individual comments from the students in reference to stereotypes and the incredible talent that was showcased from the students brought me to tears. I applaud the sophisticated efforts of our students that planned this event. They were truly class acts that represented our school and population with dignity and pride.”

Students of the Month - February

Abby Osmeyer, 11th Grade

Abby started the One Love Club at Towson which focuses on healthy relationships and discussing issues relating to relationship violence. She organized our February Valentine’s Day event giving out candy grams with the focus of #thatslove and putting a spotlight on what healthy relationships or gestures of love look like. She is also working on reaching out in the Towson and Greater Baltimore community to plan events for the One Love organization and volunteering at My Sisters Place, a local women’s shelter. Abby exemplifies the ideals of citizenship by giving back to the Towson community and reaching out to create partnerships in the greater Baltimore area through her club’s organization. Awesome work, Abby!

Cristina Cebotaru, 12th Grade

As secretary of the SGA, Cristina continually plans class, and school-wide events, such as the recent Blood Drive and class field trips. She currently has an internship at Johns Hopkins in their physiology lab and does community outreach with their internship program. She was awarded the cystic fibrosis foundation grant to continue research for a cure. Cristina is a selfless, well-rounded student who continues to display acts of citizenship here at THS and in her community. Congratulations, Cristina!
